

VOCABULARY AND LISTENING

Buying things

- 1 What can you buy or do in these places? Write two things for each place.
Compare your ideas with the class.

a clothes shop	a chemist's	a café	a bank	a newsagent's

- 2 T 4.5 Listen to the conversations. Answer the questions.

- Where are the conversations taking place? Choose from the places in exercise 1.
- What does the customer want?
- Can the shop assistant/cashier help?
- How much does the customer pay?

- 3 Complete these lines from the conversations. Look at the tapescript on p64 and check your answers.

1 A Hello. Can I help you?

B I _____, thanks.

...

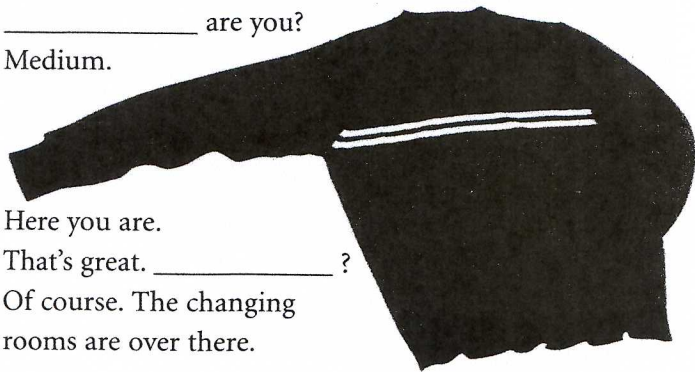

B I'm looking for a jumper

_____. Have you got _____?

A I'll just have a look.

_____ are you?

B Medium.

A Here you are.

B That's great. _____?

A Of course. The changing rooms are over there.

...

B I like it.

A It _____.

B How much is it?

A £39.99.

B OK. I _____.

A How would you like to pay?

B _____.

2 A _____ help me?

I'm looking for this month's edition of Vogue.

Can you tell me _____?

B Over there.

Middle shelf. Next to She.

3 A Hello. I _____ help me. I've got a bad cold and a sore throat. Can you _____?

B OK. You can take these three times a day.

A Thank you. _____ some tissues _____, please?

B Sure. _____?

A No, that's all, thanks.

4 A Good morning. Can I have a _____, please?

B Espresso?

A Yes, please. Oh, and a doughnut, please.

B _____ there aren't _____.
We've got some delicious carrot cake, and chocolate cake.

A OK. Carrot cake, then.

B Certainly. Is _____?

A Yes, thanks.

B _____, please.

A Thank you.

